How much do you think Americans spend per day at the movie theater?

Hint : It's in the millions

---

26.6 Million Dollars

(Which comes out to be over $9,700,000,000 a year)

A.O Scott

- Started his career as a book critic
  - Critiquing Films for over 16 years,
  - Became Chief Film Critic of the New York Times in 2004
  - A distinguished Film Studies professor Wesleyan University
  - Recently released a book about his career/critiquing

Critiception

“Few could explain, let alone seek out, a career in criticism. Yet what A.O. Scott shows in Better Living Through Criticism is that we are, in fact, all critics: because critical thinking informs almost every aspect of artistic creation, of civil action, of interpersonal life.”

Birdman Promotional Poster Analysis

- Minimalism
- Usage of well known symbols/logos (NY Times, Awards)
- Ratio of text to other items on the poster

It never seems to get anywhere, taking up space and time without managing to be especially memorable or imposing

Does A.O Scott have an influence on Gross?

A.O Scott Ratings vs Lifetime Gross

Rotten Apple?

- Outliers exist in both Rotten and Fresh ratings
- Generally, movies Gross evenly whether or not A.O thinks it's Rotten or Fresh

Initial Analysis

What Critics Might Say:

This picture achieves a level of badness that is its own form of sublimity.

A Sound of Thunder (2005)

An unholy, incoherent mess.

Masked and Anonymous
(2003)

Here's a graph I pulled from /r/dataisugly. At least he labeled his axes...
